GOT JUNK?

A BIT ABOUT GOT JUNK? VOLUME 2

THEFOURTH has always existed at the intersection of art and design. While the neatness of categorisation has allowed a clearly distinguishable experience between works and creative disciplines; the evolving nature of the gallery has brought this relationship between art and design, and our intimate ties to, towards our central focus. In capturing the essence of the shifting ways in which art and design is being created, viewed, understood and housed, we are evolving the gallery into a project space that is highly curated and more frequent than our large scale art and design exhibitions - and in doing so, we welcome more space within ourselves and our collaborators with which we can reflect these cultural and creative shifts.

Got Junk? Vol 2 is the second edition of our curiosity to experiment with the traditional exhibition framework. Through inviting a myriad of artists and designers to cleanse out their studios, alongside some special gallery collectibles of our own, Got Junk? Is an online and catalogue based experience, which seeks to encourage accessibility and participation for art & design collectorship in young beginners and versed-collectors alike. Art and design are often temporary, visual and philosophical experiences held within a physical environment; yet the emerging enthusiasm of younger audiences to purchase and collect themselves, for their own aesthetic awakenings, has inspired us to curate and offer a bold, easily-navigable digital environment. Got Junk? Is precisely this; a digital garage sale of the finest degree, filled with the works of the excited, emerging talent, established designers and artists and local makers.
